The PUB St GERMAIN, it is First of all a Figure: that of Jean-Claude Cassagnes who to escape the Profession of "bougnat" to which his Parents intended him and to become a Waiter, produces them a False Medical Certificate provided by a Complaisant Doctor....

"Next to the Relais Odeon, there was a Bookshop for Sale. I bought it to create the Pub Saint Germain. I had spotted the Concept of a Box in Philadelphia, and at the Same Time, I loved English Pubs. But no Banker followed me when I wanted to do English Food, like Porridge and Stuffed Bellies. English Food only worked for a Year... On the Other Hand, we had 100 Different Whiskies and 500 Beers, 32 of which were on Draft. "

The PUB St GERMAIN embodies the Saint-Germain-des-Prés of the 70's: an Era of Party and Java, of Liberation and Utopias of All Kinds, Years that Cassagnes lives in his Pub, in Joy, with his Friends Michel Polnareff or Francis Blanche.

The PUB St GERMAIN then became the Mythical Parisian Bar that we know, the Paradise of "Party and Beer" for over Thirty Years... It fades away for a Few Years before finally coming back to us, in December 2019, under the Leadership of Thomas Saint-John and Greg Smith who make us "rediscover the DNA of the PUB St GERMAIN" by recreating "The Cosmopolitan and Warm Atmosphere of Anglo-Saxon Pubs".

It's an Iconic Establishment and a Magnificent Building," insists Thomas Saint-John. "We wanted to recapture some of its History beyond the Simple Name, which has been known for Several Generations."

The PUB St GERMAIN finally regains its Letters of Nobility and comes back to us not as a Pub but as "THE" Parisian Pub, the Still Mythical and Indestructible First Anglo-Saxon Pub in Paris.
